NURSING ECONOMIC$

business perspectives for nurses™

An Anthony J. Jannetti, Inc. Publication

Editorial Impact . . . NURSING ECONOMIC$ delivers the information that nurse managers and executives, as well as entrepreneurs and educators, need to know. For example, our first two issues featured a two-part series on "The Federal Role in Changing Health Care Financing," written for NURSING ECONOMIC$ by Carolyne K. Davis, PhD, RN, Administrator of the Health Care Financing Administration, Department of Health and Human Services.

Business Perspectives . . . Understanding economics and business management is crucial to nursing's future, and crucial to you as a professional, regardless of position or employment setting. NURSING ECONOMIC$ will help you keep pace with the rapid changes taking place in nursing today.

No "Baffiegab" Spoken Here . . . Besides being informative, NURSING ECONOMIC$ is readable. Written for today's nurse, we deal with complex subjects in clear, precise writing style.

Money Saving Investment . . . We're inviting you to subscribe to NURSING ECONOMIC$ at a special discount rate: one year (six issues) for $18. That's a savings of 25% off the regular subscription price of $24. This special rate is available for a limited time. To take advantage of this discount, complete the order form below and return it with your payment. Or, if you prefer, send no money now and we will bill you for $24. You've invested a lot of time, money, and effort in your career. Now, for $18, you can put the practical information offered in each issue of NURSING ECONOMIC$ to work for you!

PREFACE

State-Approved Schools of Nursing—RN 1984 reports the results of NLN's annual survey of schools of nursing, conducted between August 1, 1982, and December 31, 1983. The publication provides a comprehensive directory of all 1,466 programs in the country, with alphabetical state listings. As in past years, NLN has maintained a response rate of 100%. Lists of schools of nursing in the U.S. are maintained by NLN and are updated each year by questionnaires sent to boards of nursing. Newly opened programs and those that have recently closed are listed at the end of the directory. The first section of the directory lists all state-approved nursing programs preparing students for RN licensure. For each school, the following information is included: address, telephone number, director, accreditation status, state board approval, financial support, administrative control—as well as admissions, enrollments and graduations. Unless otherwise indicated, all schools listed in the first section must be state-approved.

The second section lists all baccalaureate nursing programs that offer a major in nursing to RNs previously graduated from associate degree or diploma nursing programs. Addresses, telephone numbers, directors, NLN accreditation status, enrollments, graduations and type of student admitted are also included for each school. Two kinds of baccalaureate nursing programs are listed in this section: generic programs that admit RNs as well as other students and programs designed exclusively for RNs.

Programs that admit RNs only (popularly known as BRN programs) usually are not mandated by law to be state-approved, since these programs are restricted to students who have already been licensed by the state. Thus, programs need not be approved by state boards of nursing in order to be listed in the second section. Lacking mandatory state board approval, there has been no central source for identifying all such programs. Hence, section two listings are thorough, but not necessarily exhaustive.

A few schools have requested that the statistical information provided in the annual survey not be listed in the directory. This request has been honored in the school listings. Statistical data are, however, included in the summary tables, which do not identify individual schools.

This is one of several publications under the revised format for NLN's research publications. Other modules include: Nursing Student Census with Policy Implications, Nursing Faculty: Socio-economic Trends, and State-Approved Schools of Nursing—LPN/LVN 1984. An annual publication at the end of the year, entitled Nursing Data Review will be based on the modules and will include additional information. We hope users will find this format helpful in facilitating access to our research findings.

General

Voluntary nonprofit general hospital founded in 1852; has been at present site since 1904; consists of 24 buildings occupying 3 blocks, bed capacity in excess of 1,200. Accredited by JCAH, approved for residency training by Council on Medical Education and 20 Specialty boards; school of Medicine admitted its first students in 1968; City College of New York-Mount Sinai affiliate. Hospital's clinical facilities are utilized by several schools of nursing.

Facilities

Critical care units include a 17-bed surgical ICU, an 18-bed cardiosurgical ICU, a 14-bed cardiac care unit and a 30 bed neonatal ICU. Other specialty units include a 4-bed Pediatric Special Care Unit, a 4-bed Neurosurgical step down unit, a dialysis-kidney transplant unit and a 41 bed OR/RR. The hospital offers patient care in all major specialties. There is a large outpatient department and ER. There are 2 units specializing in the care of oncology patients, a unit with a geriatric cluster, and a hyperbaric chamber.

Professional Climate

At Mount Sinai, the nurse is an important and integral part of the health care team.

Mt. Sinai gives an annual Trustee Award for Excellence in Nursing Practice. An internal newsletter offers Mt. Sinai nurses the opportunity to publish relevant articles. Maximum shift rotation is 45 shift per year, decreasing as you gain seniority. Flex-Time/Compressed Work Week also are offered on selected units.

Mount Sinai's internal transfer policy encourages upward mobility to all employees. All vacant positions are posted throughout the hospital weekly. Mount Sinai nurses are encouraged to apply for transfer or promotion.

At the Mount Sinai Medical Center, for the new graduate, we offer a bicultural program developed to smooth the transition from nursing school to the reality of nursing practice. For all registered nurses a Clinical Career Pathway Program is being implemented to offer career counseling and to provide a clinical ladder system which recognizes and rewards levels of nursing practice. At Mount Sinai Medical Center primary nursing care is practiced in its most classical form.

Benefits

1984 staff nurse salaries range from $22,108-$23,608. $2,700 differential for evenings and nights; salary commensurate with education and experience; Educational differential of $400 for a B.S. The work week is 37½ hours with time and one-half; annual vacation 22 days (11 days may be taken after 6 months), 8 holidays, 4 free days; 12 annual sick days cumulative to 60 flex time schedule on selective units.

Free employee and family hospitalization; Medical/Surgical, major medical, dental, optical, and drug prescription plan; free employee group life insurance, and noncontributory pension plan, guaranteed after 7 years. Malpractice insurance is also provided and an optional tax-shelter annuity.

Education: 3 week general hospital orientation with 2 additional month's clinical specialty orientation; 4 week AACN approved Critical Care orientation; tuition reimbursement of $2,200 in the fall if enrolled in a program supportive of professional nursing at an accredited college or university and excellent inservice and continuing education departments are available for staff development.

Housing: Modern apartments are available for nurses at convenient locations near the Medical Center. An additional building will be completed in the fall. Indoor & outdoor parking at a reasonable daily rate. Free bus to nurses' residence and subway station is provided.

Special Features

Mount Sinai Medical Center is located on 5th Avenue across from Central Park, one of the most attractive areas of Manhattan, and within walking distance from the major art museums of New York City.

Mount Sinai Medical Center offers an extremely active and innovative Recreation Department. The Department provides ticket discounts to Broadway shows, ballets, operas, sporting events, concerts, etc. A host of activities and courses also organized by the Recreation Department are available to all employees during lunch hours or after work.

Just Published by NLN

YOUR CAREER IN NURSING by Lila Anastas, RN

YOUR CAREER IN NURSING is an up-to-date, practical reference on educational preparation, scholastic aptitudes, current salary scales, current and future opportunities—everything the prospective nurse needs to know. An Appendix provides listings—with addresses—of professional organizations, state boards of nursing, and sources of further information.

YOUR CAREER IN NURSING uses interviews with practicing nurses to show the prospective or graduating nurse what the profession is really like. The author, herself a nurse, followed nurses through typical working days—nurses from all over the country, in a wide variety of careers, at all levels. Their stories sweep the reader into the nurse's world—give a feel for what nurses do, what they feel, how they think.

Special Features

Veterans Administration Medical Center, Long Beach, has a contemporary Nursing Service which offers nurses a challenging and rewarding role in a multidisciplinary setting. Career development opportunities are available in clinical practice, administration, education, or research. Current licensure in any state is acceptable. There are opportunities for transferring within the nationwide Veterans Administration Health Care System, usually without loss of salary, benefits, or career status. Recreational activities are numerous in Southern California, and beaches, mountains, and the desert are near-by.

General

Veterans Administration Medical Center, Long Beach, is an acute patient care, teaching, and research facility which has 1,100 in-patient beds, a 180-bed Nursing Home Care Unit, and outpatient services. Full Accreditation by JCAH.

Affiliation is with one medical school and seven schools of nursing.

Facilities

There are a variety of generalized and specialized clinical settings. Clinical options include medical, surgical, intensive care, coronary care, hemodialysis, emergency room, operating room, spinal cord injury, neurology, rehabilitation, and nursing home.

Benefits

Financial: Salary is competitive and is based on education and experience. Basic salary is supplemented by shift differentials and Sunday, holiday, overtime, and on-call day. Annually, nurses accrue five weeks plus one day annual leave, 13 sick leave days, and nine holidays.

Fringe: Health and life insurance; Federal retirement; uniform allowance; free parking; Federal credit union; reduced rates for legal services, dental services and local attractions through membership in an Employees' Association. Bank on premises.

Individualized orientation, specialty training, and continuing education courses approved by California State Board of Registered Nurses are provided. There is partial financial assistance for community continuing education programs. Advanced Nursing Education (Baccalaureate and/or Master's Degree in Nursing) is offered at several nearby educational institutions. A wide variety of housing is available in the community.

Humana... A Commitment To Caring.

At Humana, our sense of commitment is very strong. For those we serve, it's evident in our spirit, our service and our compassion. And for nurses, it's evident in our support and respect. Throughout our international hospital network, Humana nurses are building caring careers. And for those professionals committed to nursing, there's no better place to be.

WHO WE ARE

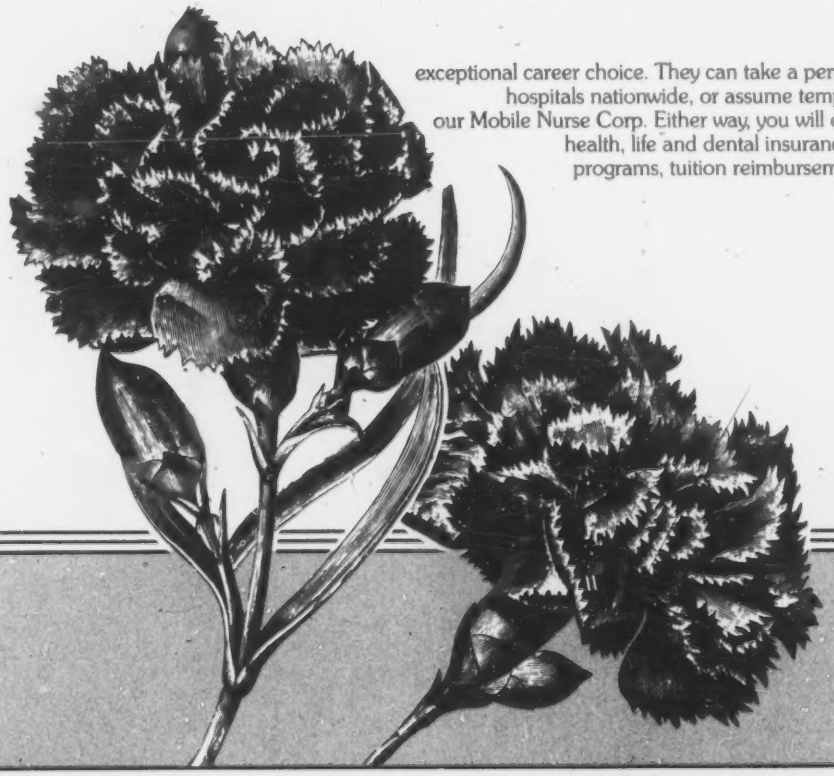
Humana is an international hospital company that owns and operates 89 acute care hospitals in the United States, England, Mexico and Switzerland. Our hospitals are known for their dedication to excellence, innovative approaches to patient care, and use of state-of-the-art technology. Health care professionals are drawn to Humana hospitals not only because of their outstanding physical character and locations, but because we pay special attention to our human relations skills. Our goal is to be unsurpassed in the treatment of patients and concern for our employees. Technical soundness plus a caring attitude makes Humana unique.

WHY WE'RE SPECIAL

Humana considers its nurses a critical element in the operation of its hospitals. Emphasis is placed on creating work environments that attract and retain competent nurses. Humana professionals find unique opportunities for career advancement. They can choose to advance within a specific hospital, or assume a position with greater challenge at one of our other facilities. All transferring personnel retain full benefits and seniority.

WHAT WE OFFER

At Humana, nurses enjoy an exceptional career choice. They can take a permanent position with one of our 89 hospitals nationwide, or assume temporary assignments as a member of our Mobile Nurse Corp. Either way, you will enjoy outstanding benefits including health, life and dental insurance plans, retirement and investment programs, tuition reimbursement and highly competitive salaries.



For more information, call our Corporate Office TOLL-FREE at 1-800-626-1590, or write Sandy Frederick, Manager, Nursing Resources, P.O. Box 1438, Louisville, KY 40201. Humana is an Equal Opportunity Employer M/F.

DRGs: Changes and Challenges

edited by Franklin A. Shaffer, RN, EdD

Clearly the most significant health financing reform since the enactment of Medicare in 1965, prospective payment according to diagnosis related groups (DRGs) is dramatically changing the nature of the health care system.

DRGs: Changes and Challenges presents a comprehensive overview of health financing as it was . . . and as it is today. This collection presents authoritative analyses of what actions hospitals, and nursing services in particular, can take to operate efficiently and effectively under this federally mandated price control system.

Written by experts in the DRG phenomenon, this book includes information on case-mix approaches, computer applications, nursing administration strategies, and nursing education implications.

Bringing together the ten part series published in Nursing & Health Care—the National League for Nursing's official journal—as well as information never before published, this book will help the reader understand why the DRG legislation was enacted, how DRGs are changing the delivery of health care, and what effect DRGs will have on alternative modes of health care delivery.

malpractice insurance

Liability Insurance program for Students, Faculty, plus the opportunity for your school to be included as an "additional insured" at no additional cost.

We realize the potential liability that Schools, their Faculty and Students face every day. That is why we make available a malpractice plan for Students on not only a blanket basis through the school but also on an individual basis to the student. We recommend the blanket program because it offers substantial savings to the student.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE BLANKET PLAN:

- Up to 38% less costly than comparable coverage on individual applications
- Limits of up to $1,000,000
- All students are insured without filling out separate applications
- A Special Feature at No Additional Cost . . . Faculty, in their teaching capacity are included
- The school may be named as an additional insured

Please Note: If you are a member of National League for Nursing, we have additional plans designed and available for you. Simply check the box below and mail in the coupon.

NURSING PERSPECTIVES™

MEDIA EXCELLENCE FOR TODAY'S PROFESSIONAL

In our long corporate history, we have enjoyed many firsts. Trainex was first to present to health care professionals audiovisual media for learning in health education.

"The Body Human," winner of many Emmy Awards, was a first in television series to harness new photographic techniques to document mysteries of the body never before seen by the human eye.

"Lifeline," another Emmy Award-winning best informational series, dramatized actual events in the treatment of critically ill patients.

We are proud of our role in the production of such precedent-setting programming.

We are equally proud of the two decades Trainex has devoted its efforts to the student nurse, providing the learner with a broad range of basic skill programming. You may be assured we will continue, as always, to produce quality Trainex fundamental educational materials.

Now, however, in keeping with our tradition of staying on the leading edge of change in the health care field, and recognizing that nursing today is far different, far more complex, than it has been in the past, we have embarked on the development of a new and higher level of programming, which addresses these needs—NURSING PERSPECTIVES, media excellence for today's professional.

In this advanced NURSING PERSPECTIVES programming, our emphasis is focused on those areas that generally draw on a higher skill level, which can then be translated into clinical application.

Over the past year or so –12 to 18 months being the norm to produce a complete series–we have designed and produced the first programming created specifically for today's tenured clinician.

If we've piqued your interest, please let us hear from you.
